

Amer K. Abu Alfa, MD – Executive Medical Director of Gastrointestinal Pathology, DIANON Systems

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7110

Dr Abu Alfa is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He is a graduate of the American University of Beirut Faculty of Medicine. Dr Abu Alfa completed his fellowship training in gastrointestinal and liver pathology at the Yale University School of Medicine and completed residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology at the University of Chicago Hospitals. Dr Abu Alfa has authored several research articles on gastrointestinal and endocrine pathology and on clinical chemistry. He is an active member of the American Gastroenterological Association, the Gastrointestinal Pathology Society, the United States and Canadian Academy of Pathology, the College of American Pathologists, and the American Society for Clinical Pathology.

Nada Alsaigh, MD – Co-subspecialty Director of Gastrointestinal Pathology, DIANON Systems

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7112

Dr Alsaigh is board certified in anatomic pathology. She is a graduate of King Saud Medical School, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, where she was first in her class. Dr Alsaigh trained in anatomic pathology at New England Deaconess Hospital, where she was chief resident, and went on to complete fellowships in both gastrointestinal pathology and hematopathology. Her research at Deaconess focused on lymphoid disorders of the gastrointestinal system.

Sean E. Farrier, MD – Medical Director, LabCorp/DIANON Systems-Florida

Office location: Tampa, FL | Telephone: 813-289-5227, x5384

Dr Farrier is board certified in anatomic pathology and clinical pathology. He received his medical degree and completed a residency at the University of South Florida College of Medicine in Tampa. Dr Farrier has special interests in molecular biology and gastrointestinal pathology. He is a member of the College of American Pathologists and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. On completion of his residency in 1998, Dr Farrier joined DIANON Systems and has practiced gastrointestinal pathology since that time. In 2001 he was named medical director for DIANON Systems in Tampa, Fla, and in 2008 he was named divisional medical director of LabCorp/DIANON Systems.

Michael Fox, MD – Subspecialty Medical Director of Gastrointestinal Pathology, DIANON Systems-North Carolina

Office location: Research Triangle Park, NC | Telephone: 919-361-7253

Dr Fox is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He earned his medical degree from the University of South Alabama College of Medicine in Mobile. Dr Fox completed a residency at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis, Tenn, which included rotations at St Jude Children's Research Hospital. After residency, he worked for 12 years at LabCorp's Memphis-area laboratory, serving there for 10 years as medical director. In 1996, Dr Fox joined DIANON Systems, where he was involved primarily in the gastrointestinal pathology service. After 8 years with DIANON-Connecticut, he transferred to DIANON-North Carolina as subspecialty medical director of gastrointestinal pathology.

Joseph Ilasi, DO – Medical Director, Subspecialty Medical Director of Gastrointestinal Pathology, DIANON Systems-New York

Office location: Uniondale, NY | Telephone: 516-228-6205

Dr Ilasi is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. After graduating from the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine, he trained at North Shore University Hospital in Manhasset, NY, where he also completed a 1-year fellowship in general surgical pathology. Before joining DIANON Systems, Dr Ilasi was a member of the attending staff at North Shore University Hospital and received extensive training and sign-out responsibilities in pathologic diseases of the gastrointestinal tract, genitourinary tract, and breast. Since joining DIANON in 2001, Dr Ilasi has continued to gain extensive experience in those areas.

Gregory V. Scott, MD, MBA – Subspecialty Director, DIANON Systems-Florida

Office location: Tampa, FL | Telephone: 813-289-5227, x3332

Dr Scott is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He received his medical degree from the University of Florida College of Medicine and his masters of business administration from the University of Florida Warrington College of Business Administration. He completed his residency training in pathology and transfusion medicine at New York University Medical Center, New York City. Dr Scott holds medical licensure in Florida and Georgia. He is a fellow of the American College of Pathologists. He has coauthored numerous articles and abstracts in gastrointestinal pathology.

Kevin Basham, MD

Office location: Uniondale, NY | Telephone: 516-228-6192

Dr Basham is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He earned his medical degree at the University of Kansas, Kansas City, where he completed a residency in anatomic and clinical pathology. He then performed a fellowship in surgical pathology at North Shore University Hospital in Manhasset, NY. Prior to joining DIANON Systems, Dr Basham was an attending pathologist at North Shore, where he was medical director of immunohistochemistry and autopsy service. Dr Basham has extensive experience in gastrointestinal and breast pathology.

Adam Carter, DO

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7463

Dr Carter is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He is a graduate of the University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine. He joined DIANON in July 2006 after completing a fellowship in gastrointestinal pathology preceded by a combined anatomic and clinical pathology residency at Brown University, Rhode Island Hospital.

Kiat Y. Chan, MD

Office location: Los Angeles, CA | Telephone: 310-996-0036, x4811

Dr Chan is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He earned his medical degree at Fatima University College of Medicine in Venezuela, Metro-Manila, the Philippines. He completed residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology at University of South Florida in Tampa where he also completed a semi-fellowship in surgical oncology and advanced anatomic pathology and clinical pathology rotations. He received fellowship training in surgical pathology at the State University of New York Downstate Medical Center, Brooklyn, NY, and in gastrointestinal and liver pathology at Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Los Angeles. Dr Chan is a member of the College of American Pathologists, the American Society for Clinical Pathology, the United States and Canadian Academy of Pathology, the New York Pathological Society, and the Los Angeles Society of Pathologists..

Wenjiang Chu, MD, PhD

Office location: Los Angeles, CA | Telephone: 310-996-0036, x4810

Dr Chu is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He received his medical degree from the Beijing Medical University, Beijing, People's Republic of China. Dr Chu received his doctoral degree and completed general pathology residency training at the University of Kansas Medical Center, Kansas City. He completed a GI and liver pathology fellowship at the University of Washington Medical Center's Rodger C. Haggitt Gastroenterologic and Hepatic Pathology Service in Seattle. Dr Chu is the author of a number of manuscripts and abstracts on gastrointestinal and liver pathology.

Sun M. Chung, MD

Office location: Uniondale, NY | Telephone: 516-228-6272

Dr Chung is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. She earned her medical degree at the University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine. She completed residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology at New York Presbyterian Hospital, Weill Medical College of Cornell University and fellowship in gastrointestinal pathology at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center. Dr Chung is a member of the United States and Canadian Academy of Pathology and the College of American Pathology.

Emma E. Díaz, MD

Office location: Tampa, FL | Telephone: 813-289-5227, x5384

Dr Díaz is board certified in anatomic pathology. After earning her medical degree at the University of Puerto Rico Medical School, Dr Díaz completed a residency at the Emory University Affiliated Hospitals in Atlanta, Ga, and went on to complete a fellowship in gastrointestinal and liver pathology. Dr Díaz was the specialty director for gastrointestinal pathology at DIANON Systems in Florida from 1999 until 2007. She is a member of both the College of American Pathologists and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. Dr Díaz has authored numerous articles on gastrointestinal pathology.

Fatima Eslami-Varzaneh, MD

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7183

Dr Eslami-Varzaneh is board certified in anatomic pathology. She received her medical degree from the University of Perugia in Italy. She had her residency training at Washington Hospital Center in Washington, DC. She completed a fellowship in gastrointestinal pathology at Yale University and a fellowship in surgical pathology at Hartford Hospital in Connecticut. Dr Eslami-Varzaneh joined DIANON in July 2004.

Lana Kleynerman, MD

Office location: Uniondale, NY | Telephone: 516-228-6208

Dr Kleynerman is board certified in anatomic pathology. She received her medical degree from Riga's Medical Institute in Latvia (former Soviet Union) and completed her training in surgical and clinical pathology, as well as cytology fellowship, at Lenox Hill Hospital in New York. Before joining DIANON Systems, Dr Kleynerman worked as an attending pathologist at the Long Island Jewish Medical Center, Flushing Hospital Medical Center, and Elmhurst Medical Center affiliated with New York's Mount Sinai School of Medicine.

Lixia Liu, MD, PhD

Office location: Research Triangle Park, NC | Telephone: 919-361-7700, x3325

Dr Liu is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. She received her medical degree from Neimenggu (Inner Mongolia) Medical College and was appointed as an assistant professor at Peking Union Medical College in China. She earned her PhD from the University of Louisville, Kentucky, School of Medicine. Dr Liu completed residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and the University of Louisville. She then completed a fellowship in gastrointestinal and liver pathology at the M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, Texas. Her clinical interests are gastrointestinal pathology, immunohistochemistry, and molecular oncology. Dr Liu has extensive research experience in areas including molecular biology and pharmacology. She also has a number of publications in peer-reviewed journals and has presented frequently in national academic meetings. Her recent clinical research in esophageal carcinoma and neuroendocrine tumors has resulted in publications in the American Journal of Surgical Pathology and Modern Pathology.

Xiaoling Charlene Ma, MD, PhD

Office location: Tampa, FL | Telephone: 813-289-5227, x5360

Dr Ma is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology and has extensive experience in gastrointestinal pathology and hematopathology. She received her medical degrees from Southeast University Medical College and Nanjing Medical University. Dr Ma earned her PhD in medical sciences and completed residency training at the University of South Florida College of Medicine in Tampa. She received her fellowship training in hematopathology at the University of Texas Health Sciences Center at San Antonio. She is a member of both the College of American Pathologists and the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. She has been in her current position since 2002.

Aida Karoun Rechdouni, MD

Office location: Los Angeles, CA | Telephone: 310-996-0036, x4814

Dr Rechdouni is board certified in cytopathology and anatomic and clinical pathology. She received her medical degree from Aleppo University, Aleppo, Syria, and completed residency training in ophthalmology at Aleppo University Hospital. After coming to the United States, Dr Rechdouni completed an ocular pathology fellowship at the Doheny Eye Institute in Los Angeles, as well as residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology and a cytopathology fellowship at the LAC+USC Medical Center in Los Angeles. Dr Rechdouni is a member of the American Society of Clinical Pathology, the College of American Pathologists, and the American Academy of Ophthalmology.

Gary S. Tennyson, MD, PhD

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7143

Dr Tennyson is board certified in anatomic and clinical pathology. He received his doctorate in experimental pathology and his medical degree from the State University of New York, Stony Brook. Dr Tennyson completed his residency in anatomic and clinical pathology at the North Carolina Memorial Hospital in Chapel Hill and a fellowship in surgical and gastrointestinal pathology at the University of Pennsylvania. After a visiting fellowship in hepatopathology with Professor Peter Scheuer at the Royal Free Hospital in London, Dr Tennyson assumed positions as assistant professor and head of the liver pathology unit at the University of Alabama. He was then an associate professor and director of anatomic pathology at the University of Florida Medical Center in Jacksonville before joining the Mayo Clinic in Jacksonville. He has lectured and authored articles on in vitro drug testing for cancers, molecular diagnostics, inflammatory bowel disease, hepatitis, and liver transplantation.

Malavika Vidwans, MD

Office location: Shelton, CT | Telephone: 203-926-7470

Dr Vidwans is board certified in anatomic pathology and cytopathology. She received her medical degree from Seth G.S. Medical college in Bombay, India. She had her residency training at Yale University and completed a fellowship in cytopathology at Hartford Hospital in Connecticut. She joined DIANON in July 2005.

Lisa Jacobs Weinstein, MD

Office location: Research Triangle Park, NC | Telephone: 800-533-0567 x3671

Dr Weinstein is a diplomate of the American Board of Pathology in cytopathology and in anatomic and clinical pathology. She earned her medical degree at The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine and did her residency training in anatomic and clinical pathology at The Johns Hopkins Hospital and University of Kentucky Chandler Medical Center. Her areas of expertise and interest include surgical pathology (with particular interest in oral and otorhinolaryngic pathology), thyroid pathology, gastrointestinal pathology, and cytopathology (with an emphasis on fine needle aspiration performance and interpretation). Her research interests include translational investigation and the application of new technologies in the clinical arena and the laboratory to improve pathologic diagnoses.

Consulting Pathologist

In addition to staff pathologists, DIANON Systems utilizes consulting physicians to review complex cases.

Elizabeth A. Montgomery, MD – Associate Professor of Pathology, The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine

Dr Montgomery is a nationally renowned academic gastrointestinal pathologist. She graduated from the George Washington University School of Medicine. Dr Montgomery trained in anatomic and clinical pathology at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. She subsequently held several academic appointments. Dr Montgomery has published numerous articles and several book chapters. She has additional experience in bone and soft tissue pathology.